

Christy Nuetzman is the County Extension Agent for Family and Consumer Sciences in Clinton County where she programs in areas such as health, nutrition, money management, substance abuse, and parenting. In addition to educational programming for youth and adults, she secures grants and resources for use in Extension programs, coordinates volunteer councils and coalitions, and provides leadership for community projects and programs. She has authored and published Truth and Consequences: The Choice is Yours, a youth enrichment activity designed to show students the impact of getting involved with both legal and illicit substances. She holds a B.S. and M.S. in Family Studies from the University of Kentucky.