

Sherri Estes has been working in the field of prevention for over 16 years. She is a certified Prevention Specialist and is currently the Adanta Regional Prevention Center Program Director. In 2004, she received the award of "Certified Prevention Professional of the Year." Currently she serves as the Co-Chair of the Kentucky Certification Board of Prevention Professionals and has been a member of the board for eight years. Besides doing prevention work in her communities she is an active member of Ferguson Baptist Church where she serves as a Sunday School Teacher, an AWANA Leader, and enjoys teaching Bible School in the summer. Sherri is the mother of two daughters, Laura and Shaylin.